PRAYERS.

TO BE USED AT ALL MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY, AND OF ITS SEVERAL ASSOCIATIONS.

PREVENT us, O Lord, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name; and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O merciful God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, nor wouldest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live; Have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Heretics, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of Thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to Thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one Shepherd. Prosper, O Lord, the labors of those Societies of the Church in the land of our Fathers, which thou hast deigned to use in the promotion of this object, and which have nourished the Church in the Colonies; and bless in like manner with Thy Holy Spirit and Providential succour the Society in whose cause we are now met, and the undertakings which we have now in hand. "Prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us; O prosper thou our handy-work," for the sake, and through the merits, of the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth. As it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, The power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1861.

The Central Board, in presenting their twentieth Report to the Annual Meeting of the Church Society, feel called upon to render thanks to Almighty God for the measure of success that has thus far attended their humble efforts. Our Society, yet in its infancy and but in the beginnings of its work, is thankful that a beginning has been made, and we trust on right principles and on lasting foundations. Our very name, the Church Society, suggests many pleasing thoughts, many comfortable reflections. There is something suggestive of high and holy privileges in the word Society. What thoughts of union and harmony and peace does it inspire. It suggests that however widely scattered, how differently soever situated, the members of the Church in this poor Diocese should realize that they are emphatically one family. And that word family, with the sweet influences that cluster around it, may well remind us that however scattered and isolated we may be in our several homes, the Religion of Jesus Christ has drawn us into the most blessed of all Societies,—the Church of the Living God ;—that it has brought us whatever of happiness, or joy, or stability we possess, and that we should so labor for its establishment and upbuilding, and for the sending forth and propagating the blessed Gospel in and through the Church, until it shall illumine every dark corner of the Province, become the centre of unity, and the bond of peace in every neighborhood, the joy of every fireside, the precious boon of every hearth throughout the land.

We come then at once to look over the field entrusted to our care, the work done, the work to be done, the men to do it, and the means by which they are to be sustained.

We forget not our Lord's words when He says "The field is the world." And, however much we may desire to go into all the world—to enter upon the foreign as well as the domestic field—we cannot but think that ours is now, and will remain for sometime longer, the home field. But even this how vast it is, how varied, how sterile, how much like a wilderness in all its aspects. True, there are patches of civilization and culture along our principal River, on our sea-coast and our thorough-fares in the interior; but when we leave these isolated spots, in almost any direction, we plunge into waste howling wildernesses. So little of these has been overcome and subdued that they approach within sight and sound of all our Missions. How much remains to be reclaimed from the dominion of wild beasts, and from lonely dreary solitudes! If we take our stand upon the eastern edges of the province, upon some treeless headland on the coast of Labrador, where moss only grows, or on some iron-bound island of the Magdalen group, or on the majestic rocks which close in the fathomless waters of the Saguenay, or that frown over the Bays of Gaspé and Chaleurs,—we say if the christian observer were to take his stand on any of these points and look westward over 800 miles that intervene between these and the western limits of the Diocese:—or if he should take his stand any where on the line which separates from our neighbours on the south, and were to look northward, away over the thousand miles, most of which is yet an unbroken, untravelled wilderness, and reflects that this wilderness, vast and dark and forbidding as it is,* is yet destined to be the homes of our race and countrymen, is yet to be reduced to the obedience and faith of Christ, his heart may well sink within him, and he may stand appalled at the magnitude of the work. But still the true soldier of the cross may take courage when he remembers whose servant and sworn liegeman he is, may gather confidence and hope when he thinks of his Captain, and looks up to the glorious banner that waves over his head. As he looks at this symbol of our holy Religion—the blood-red Cross—he will think of Him who came to die upon it “for us men and for our salvation.” He will recollect our Lord’s promise, “Lo! I am with you always to the end of the world,” and that before these words of cheer and hope had been uttered the command had been given—“Go ... preach the Gospel.”

* Only because it is a wilderness. Much of the soil is as fertile as an in the West, and vast tracts can be purchased for a shilling an acre. Surely such a country ought to be most inviting to Emigrants or to Communities of such. Let them come. They will be most welcome.

As to the men who are to realize this promise, and to do this work, it may be observed that it is only as they go, and as they preach, that they may hope to receive the blessing and accomplish their task. The field, the post, then, is ours because we are placed in it. It may sometimes seem like a desperate enterprise but we may not shrink from it. God in His mercy will raise up men who will come to our aid, and take our places when we fall. And so the blessed work goes on, until “the kingdoms of this world become the kingdoms of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

The work then is the same, and the men are virtually the same, because, though their individual names and persons may be different, yet their standards, their organization, their corporate character remain the same. The field, the work being so vast and ever increasing, it is manifest that the two great wants are men and means. We must have men to fill up the ranks and to occupy new posts until the whole has been brought under allegiance to Christ. We must have means to sustain these men and provide for them all that is needed. Where are these means to come from? Alas! This question of means is the great question of our day. But, did our Lord's servants recognise His claims upon them—upon their time, their service, their substance, the labour of their hands, the produce of their fields, their flocks, their fisheries, their merchandize,—there would be no lack of means. But Christians, many of them at least, do not readily recognize the just claims which their Lord and Master has upon them. Hence they have to be stirred up to the fulfilment of their obligations. Hence the need of moving appeals to provoke them to love and good works, for it has come to be believed that the collections, the gatherings of funds, will not be very successful without them. These appeals, then, are as old as the times of St. Paul, and have many scriptural warrants. But even this Apostle could show "a more excellent way." He taught his converts to lay by them in store as God had prospered them. He taught them to give on principle, religiously and systematically; to set apart at certain times, a certain measure of their gains or income as holy unto the Lord, to be used for the promotion of His cause, the extension of His Kingdom. And this recommendation of St. Paul can never become obsolete. The practice of it, it is humbly conceived, is just what is needed in our day.

The Missionary operations of the Society have continued, during the past year, to demand a large share of the attention and efforts of the Board. So exclusively have the efforts of the Board tended in this direction, that they have considered it necessary to announce publicly that no reliance must be placed on their ability to make hereafter the grants generally looked for for Church building, although this is one of the special objects of the Society's incorporation. Since their last Report was rendered, an additional Mission has been opened of which the head-quarters are at Acton, a place of rapidly increasing importance, and where a constant accession to the population is caused by the mining operations carried on in the immediate neighborhood. The stations of South Durham and Metcalfe Hill, are also served by the Missionary at Acton, forming part of his charge. The Rev. Robert Mitchell was appointed to this Mission in March last, but resigned it after having held it three months. In August he was succeeded by the Rev. A. C. Walshe, who still continues to labour there. Extracts from the Journals of these and other Missionaries—ten in all—will be published with the Report. Mr. A. Taylor, a Lay-Reader resident in the Diocese of Montreal, has also been employed in the same capacity under the auspices of this Society at Acton, on alternate Sundays. A large number of the Congregation of Metcalfe Hill, being also resident within that Diocese, the Montreal Church Society has contributed $50 per annum towards the stipend of your Missionary.

The Mission of Barford and Hereford, remained in the charge of the Reverend J. P. Richmond, whose appointment to it was announced in the last Report, until September last, when he yielded to a call made upon him to devote himself to the work of Christ on the rugged coast of Labrador, which had been recently visited by the Lord Bishop. The circumstances under which he accepted the charge, involving self-denial of a peculiar kind, and the nature of his duties in the discharge of it, are such as call for the hearty sympathy of the members of the Church, and their earnest prayers on his behalf, which were specially solicited by the Bishop in announcing to the Board his removal from Barford. At Barford he was succeeded by the Rev. Chas. Roberts, who had been previously employed by the Society for five months as a Lay-Reader at Bourg-Louis, to which place he has at the beginning of the present year removed as Assistant to the Rev. A. H. Pearse. The Rev. L. C. Wurtele, who for some time past had rendered such services in destitute settlements within the District of St. Francis, as he was able to do, consistently with his duties as a teacher in the Junior Department of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, having resigned his post in connection with that institution, has assumed the charge vacated by Mr. Roberts. He had continued to devote a certain number of Sundays to the work of the Society until the close of the year 1861. Owing to the increase of the Missions of the Society the number of unsupplied places is so much reduced, that only two, Brompton and Hardwood Hill, seem to have any pressing claim for its assistance, and these, it has been arranged, that the Society's Missionary at Danville, (the Rev. M. Fothergill,) shall, for the present year, supply at stated intervals.

The progress of the Missions of the Society was deemed to be a matter of so much interest as to call for the publication in an occasional paper, of a letter addressed to the Board by the Lord Bishop, containing an account of his visit last winter to the St. Francis Missions.

The Society has thus three fixed Missions, Danville, Barford and Acton, within the district of St. Francis, besides two in the District of Gaspé, and it is a subject of great thankfulness to be able to believe that the Divine blessing has rested on its labors, wherever they have been carried.

In connection with Missionary operations your Board have to announce that the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel having entrusted to the Synod of the Diocese the administration of its Annual grant for Missionary purposes, that body has thought it desirable to transfer the management of it to this Society. Committees have been appointed by the Synod and the Society to confer on the terms upon which an agreement might be come to between the two bodies, and they have recommended the amalgamation of the funds derived from the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, with the Mission Fund of the Church Society, and the appointment of a Diocesan Board for the administration of the joint fund. A by-law for this purpose is before the Society, and will, in all probability be finally disposed of immediately after the next meeting of the Synod, and the action to be taken by that body on the subject.

It is proposed to include among the duties of this Board the object which the Central Board have much at heart, of taking measures for increasing the stipends of the clergy now doing duty in the Diocese. The Central Board regret to be obliged to report that their efforts in this direction have not been so successful during the past year as had been hoped. The Committee appointed to suggest the steps to be taken for raising three-fourths of the sum of £452 13s. 4d, mentioned in the last Report as required for the purpose of bringing the incomes of the clergy up to $600 per annum, in order to enable the Society to avail itself of the conditional offer of the Lord Bishop to contribute the remaining fourth, reported that in their opinion $800 per annum should be raised in Quebec, and the balance in other parts of the Diocese. A good beginning was made in this city, and the acting Secretary visited most of the Missions in the districts of Quebec and St. Francis, in the early part of the year, for the purpose of bringing the subject before the members of the Church generally. But neither in Quebec nor elsewhere has the necessary amount been received, and the Board, for the year 1861, has been obliged to renew the system of grants of $40 to meet a like sum from the people, of which several clergymen have been enabled by their congregations to avail themselves.

In the department of Education the Board have continued their operations under more systematic management than heretofore. The Special Committee has been entrusted with an annual sum of $300 for this department of the Society's work, and they have reported an expenditure of $272.

The Depository Committee exhibits a return of Bibles sold, 87 ; ditto, given gratuitously 25 ; Testaments sold, 40, given 18 ; prayer books sold 225, ditto given or sold at reduced rates, 105 ; other books sold, $242.50 ; tracts to the value of $47.48 sold ; books and tracts given away, to the value of $45. Total amount of sales $302.

Two importations of books, costing about £85 sterling, have been made during the past year, while it is purposed to make another as soon as direct navigation is opened in the spring. The sum of £6 6s. sterling stands to our credit on the books of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, while $200.54 belonging to the Depository Fund are in the hands of the Treasurer. Altogether this department of our work is believed to be in a healthy condition and to be doing good service in the cause of Christ and his Church.

For causes stated in the earlier part of this Report, but few grants have been made to Churches and Parsonages.

The Board have to record the loss to the Society by removal from the Province of its late patron Sir Edmund Walker Head, Bart., who, while holding the office of Governor General over this part of the Dominions of our Sovereign, was a constant and liberal contributor to the Funds of the Society.

In connection with this announcement also, the Board have great pleasure in informing the Society that his Excellency Lord Monck has kindly consented to become the Patron of the Society, for which his Excellency is entitled to its thanks, which are hereby respectfully tendered.

In accordance with a resolution adopted in the early part of last year, the services of the Reverend J. L. Gay have been secured as Secretary and Travelling Agent of the Church Society, who is to devote his whole time to the work of the Society. In this capacity he has already visited all the parishes or Missions in the Gaspé District, as well as those of New Liverpool, Pointe Levi, Three Rivers and Kingsey, with some measure of success. He expects to continue the same sort of work during the winter and spring, when he hopes to visit all the remaining Missions, and if possible to reach every family belonging to our communion throughout the Diocese.

The Board take pleasure in informing the Society that the Rev. G. V. Housman, being about to visit England, they have appointed that gentleman in conjunction with the Rev. Dr. Mackie, a Deputation to bring the claims of the Church in this Diocese before the members of the Church at home.

NARRATIVE OF THE SECRETARY'S VISIT TO THE GASPÉ DISTRICT.

MY LORD BISHOP,

I have to Report to the Central Board the facts and observations resulting from my late visit to the Gaspé District.

I left Quebec in the Lady Head, on Tuesday, the 1st of October, and proceeded immediately to Paspébiac, where I arrived on Thursday evening, the 3rd. I found at the landing, the Reverend Geo. Milne, who with the utmost hospitality took me to his house, which was my headquarters, during the week that I staid in the neighborhood. On the next morning the Reverend Mr. Milne kindly took me to the residence of the Reverend Mr. Lyster, near Port Daniel. In the afternoon of that day, service was held at the Port Daniel school house, by the Reverend Mr. Lyster, and after the service, a sermon or address was delivered by myself to about twenty-five people. They seemed greatly interested for the Church Society; owing to the fewness of persons present, it was not thought expedient to take up a collection or commence a subscription, but notice was given by the Reverend Mr. Lyster, of his intention to do both on the following Sunday. I afterwards learned that owing to a severe rain storm that prevailed on that day the Reverend Mr. Lyster did not reach that place of worship, but I had his promise that he would certainly bring the cause of the Society before the people of Port Daniel, and he hoped with considerable success, as it was one of his best Missions.

On the next day (Saturday the 5th,) service was held by Mr. Lyster, in the morning, at the Shigouac School-house, and in the afternoon, in that of Hopetown, at both of which places I delivered an address in favour of the Church Society at Shigouac to 37 persons, of whom 36 subscribed $25.85: and at Hopetown to 24 persons, of whom 23 subscribed, $17.75.

On the next day (Sunday the 6th,) I was with the Rev. Mr. Milne, at New Carlisle and Paspebiac, at both of which places after service by the Reverend Mr. Milne, I preached in behalf of the Church Society, and collections were taken up, amounting to $24.80. But owing to the rain, the Congregation was small, say from 25 to 30 persons, at each place. As it was Communion Sunday at New Carlisle, no subscription was then attempted, but a meeting was appointed for the next Tuesday afternoon in the Church; but then too it rained and our congregation was small; but they appeared much interested, for nearly every one present remained, and at the close of the meeting became a subscriber. Such too was the case at the Paspebiac Church on Sunday afternoon, where, after regular service by the incumbent, and an address by your Secretary, the whole congregation remained reverently and gave in their names as annual subscribers. Notwithstanding the unfavorable state of the weather, it was cheering to see the earnestness and devotion the people manifested, most of them trudging through the deep mud and drenching rain. The results at these two places, beside the collection of $24.30, was a subscription of $39 at New Carlisle, and of $24.28 at Paspebiac.

On Thursday night, I enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. Felix Briard, the Chief Agent of the fishing establishment of Messrs. Robin, at Paspebiac. This was the first fishing establishment that I had seen, and it most favorably impressed me with its importance to us in our Church work. A very large amount of capital, and nearly the whole population along the coast, and a large number of persons always employed at sea either in catching fish or in conveying them to distant markets, show the importance of this and similar concerns scattered around the coast and on the Islands in the Gulf. If the wealth and influence they possess should be sanctified by the Gospel, for the salvation of the many thousands of men employed by them, then would they be valuable auxiliaries in our work.

On Friday morning the 11th, I again embarked in the Lady Head, and came to Gaspé Basin, where I arrived just two hours too late for a meeting which the Rev. Mr. Delamare, had called for me there. Saturday and Sunday following, the 12th and 13th, were days of such heavy and incessant rains that nothing could be done. On Sunday we did succeed in getting into the Church, where after service by the incumbent, I preached to a dozen persons. On Monday morning the 14th, I started with the mail courier, for Point Peter and Malbaie, where I arrived in time to share a dinner with the Rev. Mr. DeMouilpied, and his interesting family. That afternoon and evening, was spent in company with Mr. DeMouilpied, in visiting the few families and individuals residing at the Point, belonging to our communion. It was very muddy and inclement, and it was with the utmost difficulty we could make our way, but we received everywhere a cordial welcome.

On the next day, the 15th, we met a small congregation in the Church at Malbaie, to whom I made an Address, and from whom I received subscriptions amounting to $14.50. The Missionary here led me to expect that it would be considerably increased. It might I think be doubled. In justice however to the people at Malbaie, it must be stated that they are engaged upon a Parsonage, which when finished will be a comfortable and commodious dwelling for their minister. Just the shell of the house seemed to be up; none of the interior work done. If the work be prosecuted it may be habitable by spring. The Missionary here seemed to be much discouraged, perhaps too much so. But it is a hard field, and the people do not seem to appreciate their privileges as they ought.

In the afternoon I was conveyed by the Rev. Mr. DeMouilpied, to the ferry at the Bar-a-choir, where he left me. On the other side, I was met by young Mr. Vibert, who conveyed me to the corner of the Beach, and from thence another kind friend, Mr. Mabe, conveyed me to Percé, where we arrived late at night.

On the next day (Wednesday the 16th,) in company with the Rev. Mr. Crosse, and a member of his family, I went to the Parsonage and Church at Cape Cove. Here (notwithstanding due notice of the meeting had been given) we met only three persons who subscribed $2.80. These persons however took lists and promised to exert themselves in the Mission, which I was told was one of the best on the coast. They have a very comfortable and commodious new Parsonage house nearly completed here, $50 dollars more would perhaps finish it, and make it habitable. I am sorry to say that, for some cause or other the state of this Mission does not seem to be a healthy one. In the afternoon we returned to Percé, where, in one of the rooms belonging to the Messrs. Robin's establishment, we held a meeting and your Secretary delivered an address. At the close of that meeting a subscription was started which was liberally, I believe unanimously, responded to. The result was $44.65 from 31 persons, all paid up. A fine village Church is nearly completed here, at a cost of something like $2000. They hope to have it consecrated by your Lordship in the Spring.

The next two days were spent in waiting for the steamer, upon which I failed to embark owing to the tempestuous seas and heavy surf which prevented boats reaching her. I had therefore to retrace my steps by land as well as I could to Sandy Beach and Gaspé Basin. By the aid of a good friend, I was conveyed again through the Percé mountains to the Bar-a-choir, where I found a cart which helped me to Douglastown, and from that point I walked to Sandy Beach.

The morning of the next day, (Sunday the 20th,) I was with the worthy incumbent the Rev. Mr. Ker. On this day too it was raining, and the congregation was small. But they nearly all remained after service, and gave their names, some 30 or more, for $42.75. The Rev. Mr. Ker gave me every assurance that he would prosecute the matter, and led me to hope that the amount subscribed, would be more than doubled. I think, in this well-to-do Mission, it might easily be trebled.

However, I had to leave it and hurry on to the South West Church at Gaspé Basin, where, owing to delay in crossing at the ferry, I did not arrive until Mr. Delamare, had commenced his sermon. He abruptly closed, and called me to the pulpit, from which, I delivered an Address. The next three days were spent in going from house to house in Mr. Delamare's Mission. The result was that from 56 persons, whom we saw, we obtained subscriptions amounting to $72.17 of which $60 was paid. After all, I was told that I did not see more than half of the people here. But whether any more will be subscribed this year, I cannot say.

I visited two of Mr. Delamare's schools which seemed to be doing well, averaging between them, an attendance of about 75 scholars. While waiting for the Steamer, a service was held at Gaspé Basin, where I preached. On the 25th, I again embarked on the steamer Lady Head, which brought me to Quebec, where I arrived on Sunday the 27th, with a grateful sense of God's great mercies.

Your Lordship's faithful servant,

J. L. GAY.

FROM THE MISSIONARY AT MALBAIE.

POINT PETER, Malbaie,
23rd Decr., 1861.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—

In reviewing my labours of the past year, I have much cause for joy and sadness. I acknowledge the good hand of God upon me, who has spared me from day to day, and has given me strength to labour in some way in His vineyard.

During this year there have been in this Mission of Malbaie, 15 Baptisms, 5 Marriages, and 12 Burials.

There was an unusual amount of sickness, as well as among the new settlers, eight of whom I buried a little time after their arrival from Norway. These strangers were visited, although I could only make myself understood by signs, but they will have reason to be grateful to the Society that their Missionary was on the spot, and went in among them. In their time of trial they must have received a favorable impression of this branch of the Catholic Church, and I trust they will not forget as they become better instructed in our language, to join with us in Divine Worship.

During the year, I have held a morning Service at Malbaie, and at an outpost of the Mission when a second service was not held in the afternoon.

I have also kept my monthly appointment at the corner of the Beach when the roads were practicable. There are only a few Protestant families who are willing to have Sunday wholly given to them, and they all help to support the Church.

I hope during this winter to go among the scattered families, for the purpose of holding services, &c., if only means for travelling can be obtained. Many seldom come to church who would otherwise attend a service in their neighborhood, and although the Church is the proper place to preach the Word in, and all meet there when the private services of the Church are needed by them, yet the scattered families of my Mission would seldom hear the Word of God unless it were carried into their midst.

I have often visited the sick and the dying. These visits have raised my desponding spirits, at a time when so much levity existed among us, and a total unconcern about divine things was apparent in many. Some good may thus be accomplished in visiting the house of affliction. Not that I attach much importance to that outward repentance which the fear of the moment calls into existence in those who were all their life-time enemies to piety and to the Church. But these visits are otherwise useful to the bystanders who are then easily impressed by those scenes of death, and of the importance of being ready when their time comes.

Another means of doing good is the distribution of tracts in both languages. They are returned when read and distributed in other families. A small supply of Danish tracts was sent to me for distribution among the Norwegians.

French services have been held from time to time in the Church, but only a few attend when the services are given out before hand. Fifteen dollars have been contributed for the Church Society, and sent to the Treasurer. A list of contributors towards the support of a resident Clergyman, amounting to about £45, was shewn to me when I arrived here. But that list was incorrect, or at least many names for six, eight or fifteen shillings, have yet never been paid, and there are many poor families in this Mission who cannot do anything for the Church. Last year about £36 were collected, yet the deficiency was made up from other sources, and services were received from a few, which entitled me to the gratuity. The Congregation is not able to pay quarterly. They promised to pay semi-yearly at Easter and in the fall, when the people brought in their fish to sell. This was inconvenient to us, yet we complied through necessity, but we have been greatly disappointed. And this year the Mission is £25 deficient. This is surely very discouraging to us, after our kind offices to many, and especially as we have to pay for house-rent and fire-wood in part, while we have no advantage arising from glebe.

I remain, my dear Brother,

Faithfully yours in the Lord,

J. DEMOUILPIED,

Missionary.

REPORT OF THE MISSION OF DANVILLE AND PARTS ADJACENT, FOR THE YEAR ENDING
31st DECEMBER, 1861.

It is with much pleasure that I am able to report favorably of the Mission placed under my charge. During the past year the Lord Bishop confirmed in both stations, when forty-eight Candidates were presented, thirty-eight from Danville, and eighteen from Tingwick, many of whom have since communicated. Seven adult persons, and twenty children have been admitted to the Holy Sacrament of Baptism. Divine service has been held regularly in both stations, and the Congregations have been fair; I would especially mention the very regular attendance in the Tingwick Mission, and the devout behaviour of the worshippers. In the Danville Mission, the people are more scattered, which causes, at certain seasons of the year, much irregularity in attendance. The Society will be glad to learn that in consequence of a very munificent gift of the new windows by the Rev. Chas. Hamilton, M. A., and the members of St. Peter's Chapel, Quebec, we have been enabled to use a portion of the Church since last August. Several nice open seats have been placed in it by various members of the Congregation, and I would fain hope that the Parishioners take a warm interest in their unfinished House of prayer. We are now making an exertion to reduce the debt in order to draw the liberal grant of $200 from the Society. I feel confident that once free from debt, much more would be done towards its completion by members of the Congregation.

It was my intention at one time to open a subscription list for the Church Society, but in consequence of heavy local requirements I deemed it prudent to wait for another year. We have, however, done something in the way of Sermon-Collections, as will be seen from the Treasurer's Report. While speaking of money matters, I beg to state that the Deputation lately sent among us, did much good towards leading the people to make up the Missionary's stipend, and I trust that the very excellent sermons preached here by the Rev. Secretary, will have for ever instilled into the hearts of my people the duty of giving liberally for the support of the Gospel. I have now no doubt that the £50 per annum, will be duly paid, and in addition to that, the offertory Collections are to be devoted to the Missionary's use. I would also mention that I have just received a very handsome present of fire-wood, which, with other presents enables me to receive the grant from the Church Society.

Among removals from the Mission, by death, I have to record the loss of one very excellent man who was a most constant attendant on all the services of the Church. He fell asleep in Jesus, early in last January. Soon after that, a family who had settled in from Kildare, returned to that place ; with the above exceptions we have lost none.

I cannot close my Report, without expressing my most hearty thanks to the members of the Central Board, for their kindness in deputing two of their body, and their Secretary, to visit this mission with a view to placing its monetary matters on a more firm basis.

M. MONKHOUSE FOTHERGILL,

Missionary.

FROM THE MISSIONARY AT PORT DANIEL,
HOPETOWN AND SHIGOUAC.

PORT DANIEL, Baie des Chaleurs, C. E.,

Decr. 12, 1861.

To the Revd. J. L. Gay,

Secretary to the Church Society,

Revd. and Dear Sir,—

It becomes my duty once more to report upon the state of this Mission, although no change particularly worthy of notice has taken place during the past year. The congregations consisting exclusively of families settled in the place do not vary much, their attendance at public worship continuing on the whole regular and satisfactory.

Our Church at Port Daniel has not progressed so quickly as I anticipated; the contributions of some of the Church-people towards its erection have been extremely meagre, and some have given nothing at all. I have made many attempts to impress them with the necessity of liberality in so good a cause, but my words have been in vain.

A few, however, have, I rejoice to say, done all that could be expected, and owing to their endeavors as well as to the Lord Bishop's private liberality and the kindness of a few friends, the shell of the building has been at length completed. We have now in hands a grant from the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, and we expect, with God's blessing, to be able to make use of the Church in the course of a few weeks. I have much pleasure in mentioning the kindness of the firms of Messrs. Robin & Co., and LeBoutillier Bros., the former made us a present of glass and nails sufficient for the Church, and the latter, paint and some other requisites.

The usual annual appeals for the Society were made by me this year with average results, and the visit and addresses of the Revd. Secretary stimulated many to increased exertions in behalf of the Society, and were, I am persuaded, productive of much good.

A site having lately been presented by Mr. D. Bisson of this place, he and some other zealous Churchmen here and at Shigouac, endeavored to induce their fellow-parishioners to unite in building a Parsonage. They were not, however, met by others in a spirit similar to their own, and I fear that for the present at least the project must be held in abeyance.

A Parsonage would be very desirable, as my lodgings are extremely incommodious.

There have been within the Mission, since the 1st Jan., 26 Baptisms, 12 Marriages and 4 Burials.

I have nothing further to add, but, thanking God for his mercies thus far vouchsafed to me,

I remain, Revd. and Dear Sir,

Your's faithfully,

WILLIAM GORE LYSTER.

REPORT OF THE MISSION AT BARFORD AND HEREFORD.

REVEREND AND DEAR SIR,

My Report will, I fear, be somewhat meagre.

Being ordained by the Bishop of Quebec, on the 8th of September, 1861, at Lennoxville, I was licensed as Traveling Missionary for the District of St. Francis. However, practically I found my ministrations confined to that portion of the District in which a Mission had been formed, and known as the Hereford and Barford Mission.

I, of course, fell into the arrangements made by my predecessor, the Rev. J. P. Richmond. Services were held on alternate Sundays in each of the Townships. I had expected to find a large congregation in Hereford, but in this I was somewhat disappointed. The novelty of the Services had worn away; consequently the regular congregation was small. It averaged 27. However, there is much to encourage. The congregation is steady, and in time will increase in numbers. The responses are heartily given; and there is a willingness to learn, which is truly refreshing.

There is an earnest desire in the minds of the majority of the congregation to build a Church for the celebration of Divine Service. They need help, which in this case would be judiciously bestowed, for as far as their means go, they are willing to give to the honour of God. One person, by no means to be called a wealthy man, has promised $200 together with the land for the site. Others are willing to give according to their ability.

Perhaps the best criterion for judging the feeling of the Congregation, with reference to their determination to support a Mission, is the manner in which they fill up their obligations to the Minister. For the time which I was there, the Hereford people paid $5, which is only $2 minus of the sum required from them.

In the Township of Barford there are two Congregations. Services are held in School houses, as in the Township of Hereford, the one being at the Boundary Line, called Daniel's School House, and the other near Drew's Mills. The Congregation at the former averaged 28, the latter 30. The population of Drew's Mills is Baptist, with very few exceptions. The Services of the Church may be said to be well attended, but still they are looked upon in the same light as those of the sects around, if so favorably. There is nothing distinctive in their feeling. However, there is the leaven existing, and we may hope that ere long it may bear fruit.

Mrs. Pless, of Quebec, has given 100 acres of land situated in the Township of Barford, to the Church, either to be sold as an endowment, or for a site for a Church, with glebe attached. This land is situated near Drew's Mills.

The congregation at the Boundary Line, is generally smaller than at Drew's Mill, but still the Service at this place is more refreshing. There is an English family residing near the School House, which has some influence in the neighbourhood. Mr. Ward, with all the members of his household, are very regular in their attendance at Divine Service, so that the responses are heartily given, and every attention paid, which the solemnity of the Service demands. The other members of the Congregation followed the example of those nurtured in the faith of the Church, so that the Majesty of God is rarely offended by irreverent behaviour.

There is a strong desire existing here to build a suitable house for the Service of the Most High. Mr. Ward has promised 10 acres of land, while the residue of his family make up an amount of $200. A farmer in the neighbourhood has promised $10, while another who lives near Drew's Mills, has offered $25. There is reason to hope then that this Township of Barford may have a Church erected within it before many years have gone by.

The Barford Congregation have paid to me the full amount due from them. It is, however, but just to say that Mr. Ward has forwarded the whole of this; with very little prospect of any being refunded. On the other hand, I must add, that Mr. A. Damon, of Drew's Mills, seems determined to support the Church, and will, I have no doubt, pay the subscription he has promised.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

CHAS. ROBERTS.

The Rev. the Secretary of the Church Society.

Bourg-Louis, January 15, 1862.

THE REV. C. ROBERTS' REPORT OF HIS SERVICES AS LAY-READER.

REV. SIR,

I have been requested to send in a Report to the Church Society, detailing Missionary operations in Bourg-Louis, for the last five months, during which time I laboured in that district as Lay-Reader.

I found a very good spirit manifested upon my arrival at Bourg-Louis. The people had come to the conclusion that a resident Missionary would be an advantage to them. Consequently they were determined to show by their good conduct that they had made an improvement on the past ; for the Bourg-Louis people had gained for themselves a painful notoriety in being very remiss in fulfilling their engagements to the Clergyman. The subscription list then was well filled up, the number of persons who neglected to sign their names being very small. However this had been done many times before. The testing time is, of course, the paying time.

I held services twice every Sunday, with catechising between. Notice had been given by the Bishop of a Confirmation to be held. This gave me an opportunity of drilling the candidates well in the Church Catechism. The morning service was very well attended throughout the time I remained in Bourg-Louis. The Congregation averaged 80. On some Sundays a much larger number met together. The afternoon Congregations were not so large : yet they averaged 40. We may call them respectable congregations for a small bush Mission.

Finding the singing conducted in a very peculiar style, I at once formed a music class. This led several to attend regularly to the music lessons, and what was better, to the Church services. I am thankful to state that my labours to improve the tone of Church Music were blessed with success. The Canticles were chanted, and good solid Psalm tunes were substituted for the light productions of a debased age in Church Music. These, simple yet good, were appreciated by the congregation, the members of which soon joined in most vigorously. Our services ought to be made attractive to the mass of the congregation. The services of the Roman Catholic Church are highly attractive, and the Dissenters also endeavour to stir up the devotional feelings of their congregations by fervent appeals to their musical feelings ;— I certainly found a knowledge of music of great service to me in Bourg Louis.

There are 440 Protestants in Bourg Louis, and these as-surely ought not to be left without a resident clergyman. The Clergyman at Port-Neuf is twenty-one miles away, and he cannot attend to them properly. At present there is a strong desire in the minds of the people to have a minister among them, and I believe they would do their best to support a Missionary, and put him in a comfortable residence, for this in Bourg Louis as elsewhere, is a positive necessity, and at present for a person with a family, there is no residence at all. However, we may hope for a better future.

I am,

Yours very faithfully,

CHARLES ROBERTS.

Couticook, Sept. 10, 1861.

The Revd. the Secretary of the Church Society.

REPORT OF TRAVELLING MISSIONARY DURING THE ECCLESIASTICAL YEAR, 1860—61.

ACTON,

I visited four times and held six divine services. It is well there is now a clergyman settled there, as many of the miners belong to the Church, and they required to be encouraged to attend regularly.

DURHAM STATION

I visited six times, holding afternoon service. There always was a full attendance. No doubt it will be soon necessary to station a Missionary there, as several sound Churchmen live near at hand, and further steps have been taken towards the erection of a church near the glebe lot. I visited six times and held five morning services. This

ELY

I visited six times and held five morning services. This Mission is improving as one Church family has returned from the States, which left the place two years ago, and another family has settled on a farm.

OUTLET OF LAKE MEMPHREMAGOG

I visited three times and held three Divine Services, there being always good attendance. A railway from St. Johns, to connect at Barton with the Passumpsic and Connecticut railway, is now being constructed. As there will be a Station at the Outlet, it would be well, as soon as possible, that a Missionary be appointed to that post who could attend also to Georgeville.

GEORGEVILLE

I also visited three times, holding Divine Service each time. This place has been distracted by the efforts of the Methodists against the Church, but if the place be attended to, the Almighty will turn these troubles to the good of the Church. We have the promises of God on our side, and even the gates of hell cannot prevail against our cause.

WINDSOR

I visited seven times and held seven services. Here are but few Churchmen, and there is not much encouragement.

• HARDWOOD HILL

I visited eight times, and the services were always well attended. There are five Church families in this place, and all the inhabitants around are well disposed towards the Church. Several persons wish to be confirmed, and so this post should not be neglected: besides a collection for the Church Society will be made, which they have promised to make without being asked.

BROMPTON

I visited eighteen times, and the attendance has always been large. This field is improving rapidly. A subscription has been made for the Church Society, which will be handed in on the first of January, and this collection with that of Hardwood Hill, will amount to about forty-five dollars, which is to the praise of the inhabitants as it is their first time of giving.

The School-house where the Missionary holds Divine Service, is about nine miles from Sherbrooke, and it might be supposed the Church families might attend there, but the Church in Sherbrooke, being so filled that there are several families in the town that cannot obtain pews, it behoves a Missionary to attend to this place.

LOUIS C. WURTELE.

Quebec, Dec. 24, 1861.

REPORT ON THE MISSION OF LAMBIE'S MILL AND LOWER INVERNESS.

There is much that is cheering to report as to the outward progress of this Mission. God grant that it may throughout be what I know it is in some instances, the fruit of a more serious feeling of responsibility.

I have taken a stand with regard to the support of the Church, which I conceived it to be my duty to take, disagreeable though it were to myself. Feeling it to be a Clergyman's duty to speak plainly on any neglect which appeared to call for plain speaking most imperatively, I could not shut my eyes to the fact that there was one sin of omission very much indulged in, viz : that of neglecting the support of religion. The result of my teaching is, I am happy to say, a more evident interest in, and sympathy with the Church and its welfare, and no misunderstanding whatever, as far as I can perceive, of the motives which induced the stand I took.

In the Church at Lambie's Mills, a pulpit, reading-desk, Communion table and rails have been added since last year, the gift of £5 from your Society, helping in this good work. Some oats to keep the horse are always subscribed at Lambie's Mills, and in Nelson and parts of Inverness. Indeed in these matters there is a large proportion of the people who are ever ready to help cheerfully, but payments come in irregularly enough. I do not suppose there are half a dozen of subscribers who can pay quarterly, however desirable such an arrangement certainly is. There are no local markets, and journeys to Quebec must be infrequent. The Parsonage in Inverness is now inhabited, and is, I am sure, a source of satisfaction to the congregations—to those who have helped, and to those who will yet help. I hold a service in the house once a month for the present for the sake of those who are a long way from the House of God. The donations to the parsonage given by residents in the Mission, amount to £35 2s. 6d. The work that has been done by the people is worth certainly as much as $120. This has been done by taking down and removing and fixing up a stable: by clearing two acres of land, and by hauling lime, &c., &c. This is equivalent to £65 2s 6d altogether, and there is much yet to collect. Our congregations are steady, both churches being filled except in bad weather.

W. S. VIAL,
Missionary.

North Inverness, Decr. 23, 1861.

Note by the Secretary.—Accompanying the above is a list of the free-will offerings of the people of the above mission to their worthy minister, over and above the stipulated stipend agreed to be paid to him, and which is estimated at the value of $53.08. It is not thought worth while to publish the items. It evidences appreciation and kindly consideration. May many more such evidences be exhibited during the coming year, not only in this but in all our Missions. To all, he makes bold to say, "go and do likewise."

MISSION OF FRAMPTON, &c., 1861.

I cannot say that any very marked progress has been made in this Mission during the year, though some efforts have been made in the cause of education, which I trust will result to the temporal and spiritual advantage of the rising generation. Aided by grants from the Church Society, we have been enabled to secure the services of two competent teachers for East and West Frampton. The schools have been in operation since July, and are attended by more than sixty scholars who are making satisfactory progress in secular and religious learning. The people have displayed a great deal of earnestness and self-denial, considering their limited means in establishing these schools, and I trust will manifest the same spirit in continuing to support them.

We have to thank the Church Society for a grant of books to the amount of $6 towards our Lending Library, and a friend in Quebec gave us twenty volumes more, so that with the additions made, and the subscription money of the people, we have now two hundred and fifty volumes of interesting and instructive books which are doing good service in supplying the people with healthy reading, in place of those trashy novels and sensation newspapers which at one time flooded the township.

I regret very much that we have not fulfilled the conditions which would have enabled us to claim the Society's grant of $60 towards finishing St. Paul's Church, East Frampton. If contributions in kind could have availed for the purpose, they would have been forthcoming; but to have the work properly done, we must have employed workmen outside the congregation who would have required cash payments, and farm produce, of all kinds was so low this year, the people found it hard enough to get cash to pay the teacher and to meet their engagements to the Church Society. The same excuse, however, cannot be made for the people of Standon, who have left their new church in the same state in which it was at this time last year. All that was required of them to make it decent and comfortable was a little labour, not equal certainly to two days work for each head of a family, and yet that little has been left undone in spite of many efforts made to arouse them from their apathy and indifference. The good effect produced by the meeting held here for the Society last winter is shown by the additional subscribers who have sent in their contributions to the Treasurer. The amount remitted last year was $40.05 ; this year it is $58.25.

I append some statistics, from which some notion may be formed of the state of the Mission.

Extent of square miles, 250 ; Churches, 4 ; families, 135 ; Church members, 800 ; services, 135 ; communicants, 142 ; Communion administered 25 times ; Public catechizing 23 times ; Baptisms, 32 ; Marriages, 9 ; Burials, 10 ; contributions $313.25, divided thus : Towards my salary, $160 ; Church Society, $58.25 ; Offertory, $50 ; produce and work to enable me to get the Society's grant, $45.

J. H. JENKINS,

Missionary.

REPORT OF THE MISSION OF LAKE BEAUPORT AND STONEHAM.

In my new field of labour, I am grateful to the giver of all good for the prosperous condition of the Church, and the good success of labours. And still a great work remains to be done.

Regular Sunday services have been held at Lake Beauport and Stoneham, alternately, morning and afternoon during the Summer ; but at present the services are held fortnightly in each place, owing to the shortness of the days, and the great distance between the Churches. Sometime ago the Government made a grant of $800 to make a road across the Mountains, but afterwards rescinded it. It would be no trifling advantage to both parishes to have such a road, removing the tremendous circuit which must now be travelled, and facilitating the intercourse of the inhabitants of all classes in both parishes. In that case also I would be able to continue my regular Sunday services in both places, and carry out my work with more vigor and greater advantage.

I visit the people in both parishes regularly and solicit them to attend Church, and your society will be glad to hear some who were careless of God and public ordinances, have begun to show a better spirit, and visit the House of God. Among the rest I visited a German family at Lake Beauport who have been resident there about two years. I was the first Clergyman of the Church of England that had ever called upon them : they were apparently much pleased with my visit, and promised to attend Church in future.

It has been my purpose in my intercourse with those families who differ from us, and who attend our services, to manifest in my conversation and deportment, the temper and spirit of our Blessed Lord, that I might leave a godly impression of Divine truth in every house. The great object of my Mission which I constantly keep in view is the salvation of all the souls of the individuals, parents and children, with whom I meet in the discharge of my pastoral duties : accordingly my preaching has been adapted to the circumstances of the people : while I have exercised great forbearance to sectarians, I have not failed to warn them of the sin of schism, and to urge upon them the necessity of reunion among all classes of Protestants to support the Clergyman of the predominant Church.

The Church at Lake Beauport is well filled every service, and all the vacant pews are taken. We were much cheered by the visit of the Lord Bishop on the first Sunday after Christmas. His Lordship administered the Holy Communion to twenty two Communicants, and it proved to be a season of blessing and refreshing from the presence of the Lord. The Sunday School although reorganized under unpropitious circumstances, is slowly advancing with every prospect of doing good. A donation of interesting books, and the additional aid of our good and efficient teacher will supply increased facilities for the religious instruction of the rising generation. I regret to hear that the Education Committee have resolved to withdraw their grant in part from the Day School at Lake Beauport. The present pecuniary arrangement between the Teacher and the Church Society is satisfactory to the people, and any new arrangement in the present position of affairs to throw the burden of supporting the Teacher, on the people who find it very difficult to pay their present liabilities, would be, to say the least, very distasteful. The School of this poor and feeble population has been under the care of the Church Society in more prosperous times, and now when they are still more feeble by the emigration of several families, they look to the Church Society for the continuance of their benevolent aid in the effort which they are making to carry on the School as efficiently as before. I would appeal therefore to the charitable members of the Central Board in behalf of this poor district whose many parents cannot pay the Master for the schooling of their children. I venture to hope that the original grant will not be reduced.

The Church population of Stoneham are very desirous that their Church should be fitted up for consecration to the service of Almighty God, in accordance with the teachings of Holy Scripture. In view of this they are taking the necessary steps for repairs and have already shewed out a goodly number of the beams for the floor, and have brought them to the Church. There will be great difficulty experienced in raising the necessary sum for repairing the Church. I speak from my knowledge of the circumstances of the people. A small contribution can be raised from the people of Stoneham, but they will be forced to seek for means to supply the deficiency among the friends of the Church elsewhere. It is earnestly hoped that the wealthy Protestant community of Quebec will not let this little Church go to decay for want of the necessary sum to pay for its repairs.

We are greatly indebted to a liberal gentleman of Quebec for the promised grant of a small glebe to the Church at Stoneham, and I beg to thank him publicly for the generous gift, in behalf of all the protestant people of the parish. Before the end of the year something may be done towards erecting a parsonage upon it, which is very much wanted. My services at Stoneham are well attended, and by God's blessing I trust much good may be accomplished by them. I am not able to report the amount of contributions that have been raised in the Mission for the Church Society. I have been waiting till the subscription lists which are now opened are returned by the collecting Agents.

The number of Baptisms, since your Missionary commenced his services here, is, in both parishes, seven infants, one in private. There have been but one marriage and one burial.

ROBERT MITCHELL,

Missionary.

January 16, 1862.

REPORT OF THE REVEREND A. CRAWFORD WALSHE.

This Mission covers a large extent of ground, the members of the several congregations are much scattered, and Actonvale, the place marked out for the Missionary's residence is very inconveniently situated, enhancing much the difficulty of visiting, and the performance of other official duties. The means of communication between different points is in some places little better than a "blazed" road, and as the Missionary has to travel mostly afoot, for considerable distances, the labour is distressing and has, in one instance, superinduced sickness.

At South Durham, there is a large and intelligent congregation who are most attentive and alive to their eternal interests. In no congregation that the undersigned has ever consorted with, has he felt the beautiful Litany to be offered up to the throne of Grace with such fervent devotion as here, and he believes and gratefully acknowledges that "the hand of God has been" over his labours "for good."

A block Church is in course of erection, and there is a beautiful clergy lot with a small house on it, the gift of an esteemed Minister of the Diocese, for the Clergyman's residence. The people have kindly paid their promised contribution to their Pastor's support, and it is believed would not object to increasing it.

Here the Lord's Supper was administered twice; the number of communicants being twelve.

At Metcalf Hill, where the congregation is composed of members belonging partly to the Diocese of Montreal, and partly to Quebec, there is usually a good assemblage of devout and attentive worshippers, sound "in the Faith once delivered to the Saints," and loyal to the Church of their Forefathers. God Almighty has blessed this community, and their temporal concerns are very prosperous. May He in His boundless mercy preserve them blameless in the ways of Truth and Faith till Christ's coming in glory with "a recompense of reward" of "eternal life" "to them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honor and immortality."

Here also our Brethren have administered to their Pastor's necessities and honorably paid their promised portion toward his support.

I once celebrated the Holy Communion here, the number of recipients being eight.

It has been a matter of much regret to me that I have not been able to organize a Sunday School here or at Durham. I endeavoured to do so, but my efforts were unsuccessful. All I could effect for the peculiar good of the young was inducing several of the children at each mission to commit to memory the 5th Chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel, at Christmas, and, on their repeating it correctly to me, presenting each with a small book in token of approval.

I have conducted Divine Worship here and at South Durham fortnightly, and with the above Congregations there has I rejoice to say, existed such friendly sentiments and mutual esteem and confidence, between the Pastor and People that our intercourse has been of the most agreeable (and I trust in God of an equally profitable) nature to both. But I grieve to say that my labours amongst them (owing to non-residence) have not been so abundant as I could have wished.

I would humbly, but most earnestly commend these two congregations to the Board with the view that a resident Minister may be speedily located amongst them, for these "fields are white already to harvest" and the crop is rank and ripe. Will not the Church go in and "dress and keep?" "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few"; if she tarry, others will occupy and the aspect of these promising fields will change, and these smiling, serried ranks of now jubilant Churchmen will soon be laid low and gathered and bound in sheaves for other garnerers.

Actonvale is the smallest and poorest of congregations within this Mission, yet it furnishes to the Minister a field of much usefulness. The mine, upon which nearly all our members depend for their daily bread, has been in a state of transition, and in a collapsed condition almost ever since my arrival, and from there being but little or no employment at it, our members have decreased, and much suffering and destitution exist.

I have held two services, (sometimes three which includes a special one for the miners when there was work) a Sunday each fortnight, and until very recently one each Wednesday evening, and on each Festival, and all these have been usually as well attended as can be expected.

There is a Sunday School which numbers twenty-three scholars, of which Miss Sarah Dunn is superintendent, and in which Mrs. Merrill, Miss T. Dunn, and occasionally Mrs. W. H. A. Davies, kindly afford most valuable assistance as Teachers. I would respectfully solicit, in consideration of our poverty, a small donation of books from the Society to be used as a Library for the School.

And there is in the village a small Church School for children, conducted by a devoted and worthy church woman.

Funds have been partially collected, and a public meeting was held here early last November, for the purpose of building a Church, a site for which has been generously given by Mr. W. H. A. Davies of Montreal, but as yet no further steps have been taken towards the erection of the building.

The Lord's supper has been administered here on two occasions, the number of communicants being eight.

In the entire Mission there have been twenty-two Baptisms by the undersigned.

Owing to a misconception this report was not forwarded to the Secretary at the proper time.

A. CRAWFORD WALSH,
 Officiating Missionary at Acton,
 South Durham and Ely,
 in the Dioceses of Quebec and Montreal, C.E.
 Actonvale, Jan. 24, 1862.

At the Annual Meeting for the transaction of business, held on 8th January, 1862, the following alteration of Article V. of the By-Laws of the Society which had been proposed at the Special Meeting held on April 11th 1861, was agreed to.

To expunge the words from "contributors" to "subscriptions" both inclusive, and to substitute for them the following "Contributors may direct their contributions or any portion thereof."—

I hereby sanction and confirm the foregoing alteration.

(SIGNED,) G. J. QUEBEC.

R E P O R T
OF THE
CLERGY TRUST COMMITTEE, TO THE

Church Society of the Diocese of Quebec,

At the Annual Meeting held in the Lecture Hall, St. Ann Street, at Ten o'clock, on Wednesday Morning, 8th January, 1862.

The Clergy Trust Committee beg leave to report.

The Revenue arising from the securities held by this Committee has been received in full for the past year.

The following permanent investments have been made during the year :—

Clergy Trust including the Endowments under its charge..... $15,600

Bishopric Endowment..... 6,044

The Debentures which matured during the year and were paid off account for the large amount invested.

The Government of Canada having called in the Municipal Loan Fund Debentures, your Committee had those held by them paid, and the amount temporarily invested at six per cent.

The Rev. Gilbert Percy, L.L.D., having left the Diocese, a letter was received from him accepting the Three Hundred Pounds currency, the amount offered him by this Society as a payment in full for any and every claim he might have should he again reside in this Diocese. The amount has been paid with interest since the 1st July last, and the necessary legal documents signed by the Revd. Dr. Percy's duly authorized Attorney, giving a full discharge as per deed passed before W. Bignell, Esq., Notary, a copy of which will be found with the papers belonging to this Committee.

The Quebec Chapel Endowment Fund having been entrusted to this Committee, and the five years having now elapsed, the period for paying the subscriptions to this fund, they beg leave to report that out of Twenty-two subscriptions to the Fund, amounting to £1360 currency, fifteen have been paid up in full, three are paying up, and four will have to be written off as bad, amounting to £145. That is, the heirs of one of the subscribers now deceased, and who was always known as a kind benefactor to the Church, have positively refused to pay. Another repudiates and the remaining two have been so often ineffectually solicited during the last five years, that your Committee look upon the payment as hopeless.

The subscriptions to the Endowment fell far short of the sum proposed to be raised. Donations, either to this Fund or the Rectory Endowment will be thankfully received from those who may be kindly disposed to make future provision for the ministrations of the Church in this parish.

All which is respectfully submitted.

G. J. QUEBEC,
Chairman.

R. G. PLEES,
Acting Secretary.

NOTICE.

The ANNUAL SERMONS, in aid of the funds of the Society, are appointed to be preached—

FOR GENERAL PURPOSES, on Quinquagesima Sunday,
For the MISSION FUND, on the Sunday nearest to Michaelmas.

For the WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND, on such other Sunday as may be found most convenient.

N.B.—The By-Laws of the Society prohibit any grant being made to any Parish, Mission, or Station, in which at least one Sermon shall not have been preached, and from which the subscriptions shall not have been sent in, during the year.

All applications for aid must reach the hands of the Secretary at least a fortnight before the meetings of the Central Board.

CENTRAL BOARD.

STATED MEETING—JULY 9th, 1856.

Resolved—That it be an instruction to the Treasurer, when transmitting the amount of any grant of money, made by this Society, to any Parish or Mission in the Diocese, to require a receipt, signed jointly by the Incumbent of such Parish or Mission, and one or both of the Churchwardens.

STATED MEETING—OCTOBER 8th, 1856.

Resolved—That in all cases where grants of money (other than personal) are made by the Church Society, it shall be the duty of the person to whom such grants shall be paid, to furnish, within three months afterwards, regular vouchers of the expenditure of such sums, to be submitted to the Board.

STATED MEETING,—JUNE 15th, 1859.

Resolved—That, with the exception of grants to aid in building churches when the conditions on which any sum is voted are not complied with, and the money applied for within one year from the time it is voted, such grant shall be struck off the list.
